Other Investigations

On December 2, 1963, in Irving, Texas, at 7:00 P.M., Mrs. Ruth Paine was re-interviewed by ATSAIC Gopadze and SA Brady at 4515 W. 5th Street, Irving, Texas.

Mrs. Paine stated that papers, documents and other property of Oswald was turned over to the Dallas Police Department on Friday and Saturday, November 22 and 23, 1963. She said there was nothing found belonging to Oswald. Mrs. Paine said the Irving Police only provided protection for Mrs. Oswald and Marina when they found out she was no longer at the Texas Hotel on Saturday, November 23, 1963, Life Magazine took Marina with Mrs. Marguerite Oswald and the children to a place they had provided. The following Friday evening, November 29, 1963, Mrs. Paine left a letter with the Irving Police Department for Marina; also, mail containing several letters, and personal effects to provide a home for Marina and the children; also an office Area Sketch Location of [illegible] of her life with Oswald. That on Saturday, November 23, [illegible] turned over to the Irving Police Department the Russian books [illegible] to Marina which she found -- one in Marina's bedroom and the other in the kitchen of their house. These books were entitled [illegible] and Book of Useful Information and were not owned by her, but she thought that Marina would like to have them in connection with her daily activities. According to Mrs. Paine, Marina could not get along without these books and constantly used both books during the day.

Mrs. Paine did not read the letter recovered from one of the two Russian language books delivered to this office by Irving Police, and she was not told the nature of this documentary evidence. However, under questioning by agents she said that she had turned over the two hard-backed Russian language books to the Irving, Texas Police, which were found by Mrs. Paine in the house. Mrs. Paine's [illegible] two Russian language books coincides with the volumes [illegible] Service from the Irving Police Department. The document which is the nature of a statement or letter believed to be in [illegible] Oswald was found folded in the center of one of the hard-[illegible] language volumes. Mrs. Paine said that Marina read the [illegible] and many times during each day. The soft back matter of the [illegible] material of interest to Marina of small children [illegible].

When the letter was translated by ATSAIC Gopadze [illegible] contents were found to possibly point directly to [illegible] of the President. Copies of both the original letter and the translations have been refused to and retained by U.S.S.
